RECOMMENDATION OF THE SECURITIES INVESTOR PROTECTION CORPORATION
IN SUPPORT OF APPLICATIONS OF INTERNATIONAL SPECIAL COUNSEL TO IRVING H. PICARD, TRUSTEE, FOR FINAL AND INTERIM COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES

Sixteen international special counsel to Irving H. Picard, Esquire, as trustee (“Trustee”) for the substantively consolidated liquidation proceedings of Bernard L. Madoff Investment

Securities LLC (“BLMIS” or “Debtor”) and Bernard L. Madoff (“Madoff”), have filed their applications (“Applications”) for allowance of interim or final compensation under the Securities Investor Protection Act, 15 U.S.C. section 78aaa et seq. (“SIPA”). Pursuant to section 5(b)(5)(C) of SIPA, 15 U.S.C. §78eee(b)(5)(C), SIPC submits this recommendation in support of the Applications. The grounds for this recommendation are as follows:

1. Twelve Applications involve the allowance of interim compensation for the period from April 1, 2015 through July 31, 2015 (“Compensation Period”). Three Applications involve the allowance of interim compensation but seek only the release of a portion of the previously held back legal fees (“Holdback”). One Application involves the allowance of final compensation but seeks only the release of the entire Holdback. As detailed in the Applications, international special counsel have rendered a range of services to the administration of the estate during this time. The liquidation proceeding has progressed to a point where the Trustee has reviewed and issued determinations for almost all of the filed customer claims. The completion of administration will require international special counsel to assist the Trustee in (1) continuing with the marshaling of the assets of the estate; and (2) dealing with such other matters as they may be called upon to resolve.

2. The international special counsel who have filed Applications and the geographic locations where they represent the Trustee are: Higgs & Johnson (formerly Higgs Johnson Truman Bodden & Co.) (“Higgs”) (Cayman Islands); Schiltz & Schiltz (“Schiltz”) (Luxembourg); Graf & Pitkowitz Rechtsanwälte GmbH (“Graf”) (Austria); Williams Barristers & Attorneys (“Williams”) (Bermuda); Browne Jacobson, LLP (“Browne”) (United Kingdom and other United Kingdom jurisdictions); SCA Creque (“SCA”) (British Virgin Islands (“BVI”)); Werder Vigano (“Werder”) (Switzerland); UGGC & Associés (“UGGC”) (France); Triay

Stagnetto Neish (“TSN”) (Gibraltar); Soroker-Agmon (“Soroker”) (Israel); Eugene F. Collins (“Collins”) (Ireland); Ritter & Ritter Advokatur (“Ritter”) (Liechtenstein); Bedell Cristin Guernsey Partnership (“Bedell”) (Guernsey); Kugler Kandestin LLP (“Kugler”) (Canada); Munari Giudici Maniglio Panfili E Associati (“MGMP”) (Italy); and Taylor Wessing (“Taylor”) (United Kingdom).

3. SIPC, by its staff, has carefully evaluated the Applications for compensation. This has included analyzing the detailed reports of time spent and services rendered as set forth in the applications and the exhibits thereto. SIPC also has consulted closely with the Trustee and his counsel (Baker & Hostetler LLP) regarding the need for the services of international special counsel, the nature and scope of services rendered by them, and the fees and reimbursement of costs sought by them. The detailed reports of services reflect the following totals of hours expended by international special counsel during the Compensation Period in the performance of their duties: Higgs – 4.7 hours; Schiltz – 112.4 hours; Graf – 100.9 hours; Williams – 425.8 hours; Browne – 3,154.1 hours; SCA – 14.5; Werder – 63.8 hours; UGGC – 166.5 hours; TSN – 242.3 hours; Soroker – 1,651.6 hours; Collins – 78.2 hours; and Ritter – 3.2 hours. Bedell, Kugler, MGMP, and Taylor Wessing did not expend any hours nor incur any expenses during the Compensation Period.

4. Three international special counsel are seeking a release of a portion of the Holdback: Bedell, Kugler, and MGMP.

5. Taylor Wessing is seeking the release of the entire Holdback for prior Compensation Periods. Taylor Wessing states (Application ¶7) that it will no longer act as special counsel for the Trustee “following the determination of this Application.”

6. In reviewing the Applications, SIPC considered the requirements and standards for an application set forth in 15 U.S.C. §78eee(b)(5), the relevant sections of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Administrative Order re Amended Guidelines for Fees and Disbursements for Professionals in Southern District of New York Bankruptcy Cases. SIPC believes that the Applications substantially comply with the applicable law and this District's Administrative Order.

22. Taylor Wessing states that the Holdback for prior Compensation Periods is $4,778,247.44. Taylor Wessing seeks a release of the entire Holdback as final compensation.

23. Generally, SIPC has no objection to the allowance of such interim compensation, or a release of a portion of the Holdback for prior Compensation Periods, as the Court may deem appropriate once the liquidation proceeding has progressed to a point where a customer claims process is established and operational and significant work has been performed, and upon consideration of the potential hardship to the applicant. In this liquidation proceeding, a customer claims process has been established and is operational and significant work has been performed.

24. Section 5(b)(5)(A) of SIPA, 15 U.S.C. § 78eee(b)(5)(A), provides that the Court shall “grant reasonable compensation for services rendered... by a trustee, and by the attorney for such a trustee, in connection with a liquidation proceeding.” SIPA § 5(b)(5)(C), 15 U.S.C. § 78eee(b)(5)(C), sets forth the standard for the Court’s determination of applications for allowances of compensation and reimbursement in SIPA cases. The section provides:

Whenever an application for allowances is filed pursuant to subparagraph (B), SIPC shall file its recommendation with respect to such allowances with the court prior to the hearing on such application and shall, if it so requests, be allowed reasonable time after such hearing within which to file a further recommendation. In any case in which such allowances are to be paid by SIPC without reasonable expectation of recoupment thereof as provided in this chapter and there is no difference between the amounts requested and the amounts recommended by SIPC, the court shall award the amounts recommended by SIPC. In determining the amount of allowances in all other cases, the court shall give due consideration to the nature, extent, and value of the services rendered, and shall place considerable reliance on the recommendation of SIPC. [emphasis added]

25. In a SIPA proceeding, administrative costs and expenses, which include trustee and counsel fees and expenses, are to be borne by the general estate. SIPA § 5(b)(5)(E), 15 U.S.C. § 78eee(b)(5)(E). To the extent the estate is not sufficient, SIPC advances funds for their payment. SIPA §§ 5(B)(5)(E), 6(e), and 9(b)(2), 15 U.S.C. §§ 78eee(b)(5)(E), 78fff(e), and 78fff-3(b)(2).

26. In this case, the Court has been advised that the Trustee has “no reasonable expectation that the general estate will be sufficient to make any distribution to general creditors or pay any administrative expenses.” (Nineteenth Application of Trustee and Baker & Hostetler LLP at 84, ¶290.) Thus, any allowances for fees and expenses of international special counsel will be paid by SIPC without any expectation of recoupment by SIPC. Furthermore, there is no difference between the amounts requested by international special counsel and the amounts recommended by SIPC. Consequently, SIPA provides that this Court shall award international special counsel the amounts recommended by SIPC.

27. Resolution of outstanding matters in the liquidation proceeding will delay the completion of this proceeding. SIPC respectfully submits that an allowance of interim compensation, or a release of a portion of the Holdback, is appropriate at this time. An interim allowance does not involve a determination as to the actual reasonable value of the services in question. It is merely a payment on account of the final allowance and does not imply that the Court or SIPC has approved the value which special counsel have placed on their services. The amounts sought do not exceed the sums the Court might reasonably award as final compensation for the services rendered. Accordingly, SIPC supports allowance of the interim Applications.

28. SIPC also supports the payment of the Application by Taylor Wessing for final payment of the entire Holdback, thus SIPC supports the total payment of the entire Holdback of $4,778,247.44 to Taylor Wessing as final compensation.

WHEREFORE, SIPC respectfully recommends that: (1) interim compensation in the amount of $2,087.60 sought by Higgs, reimbursement of $27.42 of expenses, and release of a portion of the Holdback in the amount of $77,854.49; (2) interim compensation in the amount of $45,405.22 sought by Schiltz, reimbursement of $3,689.17 of expenses, and release of a portion
